

HEALTHWATCH OFFICER (VOLUNTEERING & PARTNERSHIPS LEAD) - HEALTHWATCH WILTSHIRE

37 hours per week (office-based in Trowbridge, with flexible working)

Salary: £23,172 - £25,700 per annum

Are you passionate about making a difference?

Healthwatch Wiltshire is the local independent champion for health and care. From improving services today to helping shape better ones for tomorrow, we listen to the views and experiences of Wiltshire people and use these to influence decision-making.

We are looking for a Healthwatch Officer – Volunteering and Partnerships Lead to support local Healthwatch volunteers in the community. This will require the post holder to take a lead role in developing a range of local volunteering opportunities and roles, including the recruiting, training and managing of local Healthwatch volunteers. Applicants will need experience in networking and partnership building, supporting volunteers and community groups, have the knowledge and practical experience of community involvement methods as well as proven experience of leading and developing projects.

Ability to travel across Wiltshire and surrounding areas as well as occasional travel to different locations of business will be required for this role.

This is an exciting and wide-ranging role for someone with a passion to improve health and social care services through patient experience.

To find out more about the role or to request an application pack please e-mail hrrsupport@helpandcare.org.uk, telephone 0300 111 3303 or download the pack from Help & Care website: www.helpandcare.org.uk.

The closing date for completed application forms to be received is by 12 noon on Monday, 10th December 2018.

Interviews will be held on Wednesday, 19th December 2018.
